Water District Demonstrates Financial Prowess Adding Awards to its Collection

Beaumont, CA — Beaumont-Cherry Valley Water District (BCVWD) recently received two awards from the Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA) and the California Society of Municipal Finance Officers (CSMFO) for exceptional fiscal accountability and planning.

GFOA's Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting marks the sixth year in a row that BCVWD has been awarded for demonstrating consistent financial acumen, while maintaining complete transparency for its customers. It is the highest form of recognition for governmental accounting and financial reporting, and its attainment represents a significant accomplishment by a government and its management.

"Receiving this award continues to be a major accomplishment and exemplifies our finance team's diligence and attention to detail. We are committed to maintaining this standard and serving our community now and for the future," said Board Vice President Daniel Slawson.

CSMFO's Operating Budget Excellence award was granted for the fourth time to BCVWD, recognizing its fiscal planning for 2024.

"We are honored to represent our community with the utmost integrity, said BCVWD District Director Lona Williams. "This award demonstrates our dedication to providing our customers and the general public with open access to the financial information that drives our operation."

The Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA) recognizes exceptional performance in bookkeeping and provides its more than 21,000 members and communities it serves with best practices, professional development, resources, and practical research. Learn more at GFOA.org.

The CSMFO Recognition Committee awards its Excellence in Budgeting to acknowledge agencies with well-presented budget documents, best practices, processes, and procedures. Learn more at CSMFO.org.
