Beaumont-Cherry Valley Water District Earns Great Place to Work® Certification for the Fifth Consecutive Year

Beaumont, CA — Beaumont-Cherry Valley Water District (BCVWD) is proud to announce that it has been recognized as a Great Place to Work® Certified™ organization for the fifth year in a row, reflecting its continued commitment to fostering a positive, inclusive, and mission-driven work environment.

Based on anonymous employee feedback, the certification highlights the District's strong workplace culture, trust in leadership, and dedication to employee well-being and engagement. This year's employee engagement score reached 88%, an increase of six points from 2024, while the Great Place to Work statement score climbed to 95%, underscoring employees' pride in their work and confidence in the organization's direction.

"Being certified for the fifth consecutive year is a remarkable achievement and a reflection of our employees' commitment to each other and to the community we serve," said Daniel Slawson, Board President. "The Board is proud of the culture our staff continues to build, one based on collaboration, respect, and shared purpose."

Survey results showed particularly high ratings in organizational pride, trust in leadership, work-life balance, and job stability, all of which speak to BCVWD's ongoing efforts to invest in its people.

Added BCVWD Board Member David Hoffman, "This certification reinforces what we see every day, a dedicated team that believes in our mission and supports one another. Their professionalism and teamwork are what make BCVWD an employer of choice and a trusted public agency."

While celebrating these achievements, BCVWD also continues to look forward, identifying opportunities for growth in areas such as employee recognition, internal communication, and transparency. "Our success as an organization is rooted in the people behind it," said Dan Jagers, General Manager. "We're committed to maintaining an environment where employees feel valued, supported, and empowered to make a difference. This recognition is truly a reflection of their dedication and service to our customers and community."

As BCVWD continues its journey as a certified Great Place to Work, the District remains dedicated to enhancing the employee experience and upholding its values of service, quality, and stewardship.
